The battle that is about to be fought will be a fast paced battle, we won't stop. We will be supported by the Steppe alliance, the Lions and the Fir Cruthen. To better aid diplomacy we let the Steppe alliance lead us into battle.

With even more great news Hafnor of the Allied Churches was proclaimed Head Healer of the lands of Teutonia.

The head mage of Teutonia would be decided after the battle but with the worldwide loss of magic other matters might be needed to be discussed

The third meeting (Monday) of the Teutonian Reichstag at the renewal of magic

Matters concerning Darius

Darius was accused of committing treason against Teutonia. His peers called for his defence and it was Avalon of the Morhedel, who explained with the help of a circle of power that Darius was "infected" with an undead creature by the followers of mortis, this slug strengthened his body but sapped his will making him do anything to protect undead. With the aid of the circle the slug was removed and destroyed. Darius recalled a moment of absence during the Fyre of the Jerreg he was "abducted" from the casino and woke up in a bush. The Reichstag voted upon the matter and found him Unanimously Innocent He was quoted as saying "won't do it again"

The Reichstag was then asked to vote whom they wished to lead the Moordinai Council, The Council was formally lead by Lord Bai"rend the Ancient. The Bornus, the Ursus or the Sarus? Due to a recent assassination attempt against house Ursus by house Sarus the Reichstag voted for house Ursus

Jimmy and Crows was recognised for valor and heroics in the recent battle and initiated into the order of Teutonic Knights, the Knights now have the honour of being called Sir's

The high mage selection would be delayed due to heavy magic use The head crafter was lost several days ago; a new crafter needs to be selected The Castellan deputised Heinzwolf of the Vienna court and Laucen of the Morhedel

The collection of taxes

Dakkit was made exempt from the current tax after expenditure to enhance our crafting tools out of his own funds

The Vienna court paid more than they needed to out of the goodness of their heart

In the ritual circle Islath and Bernard (formally Suki) did battle to find who was superior, the circle declared that the true name of Suki was Bernard and she was the greatest ritualist of Teutonia

Great thanks were issued to all involved for making Teutonia a great nation
